

Consultancy Services Agreement

Consultancy Services Agreement Summary

Quick Summary

This document outlines the key terms and conditions of a consultancy services agreement between Revantage Global Services ANZ Pty Ltd (the Principal) and John Boggs (the Consultant). It covers details such as the term of the agreement, services to be provided, fees and payments, confidentiality, intellectual property rights, termination, and other important provisions.

Summarized Bullet Points

- Term and Services: The Consultant will provide services for an initial term, with an option for the Principal to extend for a further term. The Consultant must perform the services to agreed standards and as per the Principal's policies.
- Fees and Expenses: The Principal will pay the Consultant a service fee as per the agreed payment terms. The Consultant is responsible for any taxes and expenses related to providing the services.
- Confidentiality and IP: The Consultant must maintain confidentiality of the Principal's information and assign all intellectual property rights in the work products to the Principal.
- Termination: Either party can terminate the agreement by providing the required notice or immediately in case of a material breach or insolvency.
- Independent Contractor: The Consultant is engaged as an independent contractor, not an employee, and has no authority to act on behalf of the Principal.

Consultancy Services Agreement

- Insurance and Indemnity: The Consultant must maintain required insurances and indemnify the Principal against certain liabilities.
- Data Protection and WHS: The Consultant must comply with data protection, privacy, and workplace health and safety requirements.
- Anti-Corruption and Sanctions: The Consultant must comply with anti-corruption, anti-money laundering, and sanctions laws and regulations.
- Governing Law and Jurisdiction: The agreement is governed by the laws of New South Wales, and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of its courts.
- Other Provisions: The agreement includes additional clauses related to assignment, GST, entire agreement, variation, notices, and interpretation of terms.